

Ashlee Simpson, Reality

Before you turn your back, Just let me say somethin' you know it's true
this ain't no more about me!

If you open your eyes and listen real clear you can hear them whispering in their ears

Their talking about you and it's kinda mean not to be a child but their steppin' all over your feet.

You can pretend not to hear you can pretend it's not true but one day
it's all gonna catch up to you!

They'll be happy and laughing too,
i guess this won't be the time to say: &quot;i told you&quot;

REALITY it's right now!
I tried to warn you
but you just blocked
me out!

It's all your fault now
you must take the blame,
for everything you did
now nothings the same

I was a fool and now i must say take a look in the mirrow who are you today!

Everything they said it came true you fell for they act now look who's the fool!!!

Yeaaaaaaaaa yea yea!

REALITY, it's right now!
I tried to warn you
but you just blocked
me out!

It's all your fault now
you must take the blame,

Can't you see you were hurting more than me but not, not anymore!!!

your times up,
take your bags and leave i thought i could help you make you believe that this is....

REALITY!

I tried to warn you
me out!

you must take the blame,
