

Ashley MacIsaac, Captain America

When Jesus went to the river
He had swallowed his pride
Till the master up there on faith
Hadn't even came to their eyes

Chorus

He's Captain America
He's always wearing sunglasses
He's always right
Oh boy I love America,
The home of the brave
Got to mix
Got to get my fix
It's gonna work again, it's a miracle
It's a myth of chocolate eclairs
It must be you, so I will shine

Chorus

He's Captain America
He's always wearing sunglasses
He's always right
Oh boy I love the USA.
The home of the brave

Chorus

All I needed was shine from around the world
Everyone is wise, and sex will prevail
Any given day sit down and pray
For you might find out your dog is gay
