Ashley Parker Angel, Where Did You Go?

There's an empty room, full of memories And everywhere I look, it's where you used to be It's like a photograph, a moment froze in time I'm staring at your face, even when I close my eyes Oh, oh, where'd you go? I thought you'd never leave Oh, oh, should have known How much you mean to me Oh, oh, where you are Is where I wanna be So, it's a shame that You'll never really know I wish I could go back And be with you again 'Cos there's so many things I should have said When I had you listening As close as we were then As far as we are now As much as this won't change a thing You've got me calling out Oh, oh, where'd you go? I thought you'd never leave Oh, oh, should have known How much you mean to me Oh, oh, where you are Is where I wanna be

So, it's a shame that

You'll never really know

Now, was it ever meant to last?

The candles burned from yesterday

The past is over, gone ahead

And watch the glow just fade away

I can't run to catch my breath

I can't hide to see [Incomprehensible]

The plans, the hopes, the dreams, the tears

All disappeared

Oh, oh, where'd you go?

I thought you'd never leave

Oh, oh, should have known

How much you mean to me

Oh, oh, where you are

Is where I wanna be

So, it's a shame that

You'll never really know

Oh, oh, where'd you go?

I thought you'd never leave

Oh, oh, should have known

How much you mean to me

Oh, oh, where you are

Is where I wanna be

So, it's a shame that

You'll never really know

So, it's a shame that

You'll never really know

It's a shame that

I never really showed
