

Ashley Stove, A Secret Secret

I've got a secret secret
It's coming out to meet you
Now it wants you to hear it through

It woke me up at home
It won't leave me alone
I've got it in my speakers, too

And it feels like a smooth velvet balloon
It's starting to move
It's travelling up my throat too soon
Yeah it's a crush a crush on you

I'm coming in my car

I drive to where you are
To see you slowly recovering

Sutures and alka seltzer
You wouldn't let anyone help you
You've got control of everything

And I think you should stay
Don't want you to go
I'm on the way
I'm never lost as long as you are ok
And I think you should know
I've got a crush on you
