

Ashley Tisdale, Masquerade

Risk taker
Dream maker
Heart breaker
Earth Quaker
I can be anything that you want me too
Core fender
Mind bender
Jet sweater
Go better
Changing my apparel for anything you choose
I don't mind trying on my disguise
It makes me happy
Here's my formal invitation
You and me go masquerading
Lose ourselves in this charading
Is this love were imitating?
Do we want, what we got
If not I, say so what
Here's my formal invitation
My soul keeper
Mind reader
Dream leader
Just be there
Why you have to hang out with me?
Hot maker
Cool skater
Trail blazer
Pose major
I already ask what's available to me
You wanna try on someone else
You might like seeing how it felt
Dude your not changing your disguise
It makes me happy
Here's my formal invitation
You and me go masquerading
Lose ourselves in this charading
Is this love were imitating?
Do we want, what we got
If not I, say so what
Here's my formal invitation
Let's go
Let's go masquerading
Don't break me finally
It's over and done
I still want you
Too see the real me
No more disguises
The truth is decided
We should be together
You and me go masquerading
Is this love were imitating?
Do we want, what we got
If not I, say so what
Let's go
La la la la la la la la
