

Ashtar, Soaring

Flying upwards to the sky
A unique silence to be so kind
The clouds dancing in dawn i reach
It must be a dream
The most wonderful dream
Stars grows nearer city of light
Bright horizon i feel i see life
Breath i canÁ´t anymore
This consealed sensation
Fractured scenes
Soaring, the sons of life
As the waves breaks in clouds
And open minds
A breach widly expands in me
As i soar to you
In the arms of eternity
