

Ashton Shepherd, I Ain't Dead Yet

I've got a baby at home
A to-do list a mile long
And a husband who comes home each night
I do the laundry, I cook and clean
It's my responsibility
And I'm usually in the bed by nine

But I still like a cold beer and a long dirt road
And listening to some Keith Whitley on the radio
Don't mean I ain't a good mama
Don't mean I ain't a good wife
I'm just like anybody else
That needs a break from time to time
And I know my obligations
And believe me, they're met
I may be getting older
But I ain't dead yet

My life's a lot different now
I'm proud of how it's turned out
And the folks like me, they understand
There's always something to be done
But I still like having fun
It's just part of who I am

I'll always like a cold beer and a long dirt road
And listening to some Hank Williams on the radio
Don't mean I ain't a good mama
Don't mean I ain't a good wife
I'm just like anybody else
That needs a break from time to time
I know my obligations
And believe me, they're met
I may be getting older
But I ain't dead yet
I may be getting older
But I ain't dead yet
