

Ashton Shepherd, Whiskey Won The Battle

I had a headache
When I woke up this morning
And a picture of you
Beside my head
And I drank till two
Till I fell out on the floor
The whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war

And I can't figure out
Just what went wrong
I play it in my head
Like an old Hank Williams song
And I can't do this
I can't do this anymore
The whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war

Oh, and it tears me up
Knowing she's with you
Oh, and I drink some more
For your memory I got to lose

And I had a headache
When I woke up this morning
And a picture of you
Beside my head
Oh, and I drank till two
Till I just fell out on the floor
The whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war

Yeah, the whiskey won the battle
But your memory won the war
