The One You're Closest To

It's easier to leave than to be left behind I'm beginning to see you didn't mean to be so unkind

I've considered putting my faith in doubt Now that it seems everything else is running out

It's not the next move it's just a new year We're stumbling through Am I what you want Or am I just the one you're closest to

It's not enough to just Like having me around If I tell you the truth will I let you down
