Mohammed Singh Azad, No apologies
Not a shot in the dark, This is a warning
The sleeping awakes each and every morning
The time is now right to burst the imperial bubble
And my act of revenge is just a part of he struggle
A bullet to his head won't bring back the dead
But it would lift the spirits of my people
We'll keep on fighting we've been a nation abused
You stiff upper lip will bleed and your pride will be bruised
No apologies, not a shot in the dark
This is a Warning
The sleeping tiger awakes each and every morning
The time is now right to burst the imperial bubble
And my act of revenge is just a part of he struggle
Synchronized time, vengeance will be mine
As they cross the curzon line into his mind
Into his home, I will burn the trophies he owns
Symbols of a future postponed
Mohammed Singh Azad, Sinbad
A bullet to his head won't bring back the dead
But it would lift the spirits of my people
A bullet to his head won't bring back the dead
But it would lift the spirits of my people
I'll shake hands with the hang man, I'll wear the noose with pride
For like the British I've no crimes to justify Pentonville will be my last place on earth
And then death will return to me to the land of my birth
