

Asian Dub Foundation, Tomorrow Begins Today

I know of a place not so far away
Where no government holds sway
Where no Prime Minister is given the time of day
Where the people demand to have a say
And they say tomorrow begins today
So I know I have to find a way
I'm leaving today
To where no fences may bar my way
Where my imagination
Can be led astray
Tomorrow begins Today
