

Aska, Valkyries

[MAGNUS:]

I taste the wrath of your might

[THORSEN:]

I humble before thee dear father above

[MAGNUS:]

So bring down your hammer this night

[THORSEN:]

Your thunder and lightning shall rain from the sky

Will I forgive you brother

Will you fight by my side

Blood reigns in Valhalla

To the battlefield we ride

Blood! Fire!

And the dead will ride the wings

Of the Valkyries

[MAGNUS:]

The dark clan of giants descend

[THORSEN:]

The thirst for revenge burns like fire in our veins

[MAGNUS:]

So fight by my side to the end

[THORSEN:]

With broadswords and axes let the carnage begin

[THORSEN:]

I swear by the hand of Odin

And the blood of my first born son

[MAGNUS:]

I'll cast away my indignities

And stand by the chosen ones

Honor and duty - a code to guide my way

[THORSEN:]

When the battle is over, the dead will raise again

On the wings of Valkyries

[THORSEN:]

How does it feel when you're cut down

And you can't get back up

When you're down and you need a hand

Someone to give you strength

There's just one thing that will do it

Don't let 'em take it away

It's the calling to battle

And you will ride the wings, yeah

Blood! Fire!

And the dead will ride the

Wings of honor

And the gods will lead our

Charge to glory

On that day for every man

Who rides
