

Asphyx, Fear My Greed

i have this terrible urge the need to take what is yours a vulture circling in the sky preying upon the weak

run away - you're my prey, fear my greed the weaker you are the stronger I get i feast upon your helplessness show no mercy and have compassion because this is your own fault remember who started this?

don't be afraid to die

my greed is here to stay
it will haunt you till the end of days what do you think that will happen now don't expect me to let go my teeth in your neck, I'll suck the life out of you just as you tried to do to me

preying upon your weakness like a vulture in the sky
the need to take what is yours there's no way back for me

my greed is here to stay
