

Ass Ponys, Your Amazing Life

it's a lunch buffet for one and an iced tea hold the lemon seems you overdid the fun and undersold the women in your amazing life you wore camouflage today because you wanted to be noticed chased your valentines away oh man you really showed us with your amazing life you never had a rhyme or reason a notion or a clue a duck insisting that it's rabbit season if days are numbered this one's two when the sinners turn to salt and the tigers turn to butter you swear o god it's not your fault while going through the clutter of your amazing life
