

Assorted Jellybeans, Don't Ask Me

i don't know
don't know what to do so many ways to go and so many paths to choose this indecision, it clouds my vision perfect is what i thought of you where did my life go or did it ever start? i don't know but you tore it apart time goes by and people try to change their lives but you, you hide behind your shitty pride.
pride
yeah, yeah.
