

Astrid, Have You

Have you ever been so cold
So confused, so ashamed
Have you ever felt so much pain
So much lies, to go insane

Have you ever had such a release
So much love, so good
Have you ever felt so much protection
So much kindness, so sweet

Have you ever felt your own love, oh have you
Have you ever loved your own life, oh have you

I'd be yours, I would
No worries, no shame
No fears that it will be over
'Cause as long as we don't move there's no change

Have you ever felt my love for you, oh have you
Have you ever felt my submerge for your love
Have you ever had a good friend, oh have you
Let me be your best one, oh let me be

Oh let me drown in your love boy, over again
Please

Have you
