

At The Drive-In, Ticklish

Pigeon-holed decision.
Making all my mind's made up.
I only colored outside the lines,
Because I forgot.

Stenciled teen initials
That were carved,
On the roof of my mouth.
Only to mark the words of so-and-so.
Fuck so-and-so.
So-and-so.

I've been dancing in the bathroom stalls,
Excreting words meant for this song.
Well, I'm kicking in windows.
It makes music to me.

Please get some medication.
Simple, it's simple to get.
We must die with dignity.

Please get some medication.
Simple, it's simple to get.
We must die.

Please get some medication.
Simple, it's simple to get.

Pallbearer, we are and all that we never get.
And all my little pushes fall on your,
Deaf!
Ears!
[x4]

Kicking in these windows.
Kicking in these windows.
On the roof of my mouth,
I'm gonna mark the words.
On the roof of my mouth,
I'm gonna mark.

Kicking in these windows.
In these windows.
It's on the roof of my mouth,
I'm gonna mark the words.
It's on the roof of my mouth.

Kicking in these windows.
Kicking in these windows.
On the roof of my mouth,
I'm gonna mark the words.
On the roof of my mouth.

Tickling with contusions.
Paper bag masks hiding infantile music.
No pictures,
Just words.
Are you afraid of our books?
Illiterate cells,
For the valley of mules.

Well, I've been dancing in the bathroom stalls,
Excreting words just for this song.
Well, I'm kicking in windows.

And you know what? It just does make music to me.

Please get some medication.
Simple, it's simple to get.
We must die with dignity.

Please get some medication.
Simple, it's simple to get.
We must die with dignity.

Please get some medication.
Simple, it's simple to get.
We're gonna die.

Pallbearer, we are and all that we never get.
And all my little pushes fall on your,
Deaf!
Ears!

Kicking in these windows.

It's on the roof of my mouth.

Kicking in these windows.
Kicking in these windows.
On the roof of my mouth,
I'm gonna mark the words.
On the roof of my mouth,
I'm gonna mark the...
Kicking in these windows.
