

Ataraxie, Behind The Mask

The world flows around me
I'm not swimming in its currents
As a rock in this muddy river
Alone I stand in its floods

I'm hiding behind a mask
Doom rules my world
Tyrannic king of my mind
While I show up this smiley

The reason of my despair
Is your possible lost my love
I can't help, you're on my mind
I can't help, to love you

Without you, life is tasteless
The flavours all fade to grey
Without you, light is darkness
The colours all seems the same

Wheat decays on its stalks
Burnt inside like my soul
Birds shot down while flying
Down in flames like my heart

Endless night on my mind
Will obscure all my thoughts
Forever, my wounded flesh
Will pour tears, for you're gone

I'm hiding behind a mask
I'll destroy it for you
Sweetest queen of my mind
When you are mine forever

The world flows around me
I'll swim again in its currents
When water becomes clear again
When we are one for evermore

The reason of my despair
Is your possible lost my love
I can't help, you're on my mind
I can't help, to love you
