

Atari Teenage Riot, By Any Means Necessary

By any means necessary! By any means necessary!

How many people like to see you dying for no other reason than this.
This can't be fought in a fair way.
And if you agree than: Raise your fist!
Illegal protest for the rest of us.
I go fight cause it's best for us.
I'm staring at the TV like it makes no sense
You're changing definitions like it's self-defense!

By any means necessary!
By any means necessary!
By any means necessary!
And you call that revolutionary!

They consume our lives like it's an advert on TV.
They sell us a future that we ain't going to see.
Moral judgements will not do it - they ain't not gonna do it.
You better turn it on and fucking screw 'em!

By any means! By any means necessary!
By any means! By any means necessary!
By any means necessary!!!
