

Ataris, A Beautiful Mistake

Ataris

So Long, Astoria

A Beautiful Mistake

Maybe I'm not ready for this, and you know it.

Maybe I'm too scared to tell you what I'm really thinking

It's not fair to stay together because of regrets we might have.

I don't want to fall asleep alone, but do I want to wake up with you?

I'm only trying to be completely honest.

So I guess this is the ending or a beautiful mistake.

And if we both agree that we shouldn't be together why does it hurt so much?

I feel like I lost my closest friend.

I don't want to fall asleep alone, but do I want to wake up with you?

I hope you're happy and completely lonely.

There I am standing all alone on Sydney Harbor Bridge.

And you know I would jump into the fucking ocean if it meant I was truly capable of being satisfied.

Well I ever be?

Did I just give up the best thing I ever had?

I don't want to fall asleep alone, but do I want to wake up with you?

I hope you're happy and completely lonely.

I don't want to fall asleep alone, but do I want to wake up with you?

I'm only trying to be completely honest.
