

Ataris, Summer wind was always our song

these break-up songs make sense again and i really wish they didn't sinatra's singing "summer wind"; and i'm thinking of the night we met just one last time
can i hear you say
"you're my little boy
i never want you to go away";
where are you?
please believe in me
i'm not hanging up the phone
'till i hear you say
"i love you
i need you near";
just give me one last chance and i'll never let you down again oh and what i wouldn't give just to kiss your lips again to hold your hand next to my heart wake-up with you in your apartment
just one last time
can i call you my sweetheart you're my best friend why do all good things come to an end
where are you?
please believe in me
'till i hear you say
i need you near";
just give me one last chance
i'll never let you down again
