

ATB, Collides With Beauty

I'm upside down
And inside out
The room's not big enough
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for you love

Gone round and round
Half falling down
The floor's not flat enough
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for you love

And I know
You know
It should be me
That's holding you
And I know that
Pride collides with beauty

I'm back and forth
And forth and back
The window's fogging up
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for you love

It's too much
It's not enough
The walls can't hold me up
I'm waiting for your love
Been waiting for you love

And I know
You know
It should be me
That's loving you
And I know that
Pride collides with beauty
