

ATB, Let You Go (2005 Reworked)

I've been to all the familiar places i've been running like a sentence never begun i've been looking for a way to let you know i've got nothing left to fill the spaces i've got nothing but a center coming undone i've been doing circles and it shows it shows

Chorus:
every cloud in the sky
every place that i hide you tell me that i
i was wrong to let you go every sound that i hear every thought that i fear
you tell me that i
i was wrong

it's the little things that makes you crazy like the thought of someone touching your skin i can see you everywhere i go i go

you can be inside a sea of faces it could be the rumor of your grin swimming in the river as it flows it flows
