

Atmosphere, Reflections (Slug)

(sample from the salton sea) i know what your thinking but dont give up on me yet just wait til ive told my whole story

(chorus)
look at your face
when all i can see was myself looking at me reflection
and all i can do was think about sleeping next to you look at your face
reflection

what would it take to make a woman like you view a wolf like me, for what i really might be listening to lyrics, only hears what i allow you gotta try to make me testify for here and right now lets have a confrontation over a cold one ill give you conversation just to see if you can hold em i play so dumb because i know some of these star struck small talk art fucks is no fun im the blood type that goes straight for the guns like before you even smoke already knew what your loves like so what you thinking because im thinking we should jump into your ocean, lets go girl this ship is sinking

(chorus)
now theres no reason to lie, ive had a lot of lovers in my reality its impossible to avoid it but theres one reason for life, gotta provide some supper gonna build a family just to watch someone destroy it do you really think that you wanna get to know me better dont you see the drama, dont you feel the pressure dont get me wrong it would be my pleasure to sing a song that could remove your shoes and your sweater bartender let me get a shot of bean cause this girl over here is trying to get me out my jeans and she doesnt seem to believe im just another theif came to take a piece and make you stutter when you breathe now girl your too small to be a tour marks let them play correct from the start with your pure heart and when your all alone ill sing into your phone if you dont know the words you can make up your own (talking) the first time she met the devil was at first avenue went back stage with him in the dressing room sexy ego trip, taller than expected about 6'3 seemed to thrive on his misery critical, observant, big words sweaty hair, sunken eyes and thick curves she said ill make him smile for the simple fact that he needs it ill make him smile just so i can kill it and eat it
