

Atom Tha Immortal, Miriam

Chorus:

Every day when I pray/
I ask G-d when he's gonna bring you my way/
There are times when I get lonely/
I start thinking about how you'll be there to hold me/
Every time when I go to a show/
Wondering if I see you, will I know/
Could it be you, Could it be you/

Dear missing element of my life/
I write/
Thinking of you as my wife/
But more importantly as a daughter of the G-d who gave me light/
I'm looking forward to you day and night/
Sometimes it seems I get a little impatient waiting for you/
But I know you'll be worth it/
I'm his servant, observing/
His faithfulness within my past/
So no objecting or questioning what's in my path/
My only question is are you steadfast/
In the supplication needed/
To make our worlds crash/
You'll be twirled fast/
Into my arms/
Holding you with a kiss/
I've waited my whole life for this/
So as I lie on the hood of my car/
Looking at the stars/
I wonder in my heart where you are/
And then a moment of illumination/
I realize you're probably in the same situation/
A single girl searching after holiness with her whole heart/
Set apart/
The mindset of Miriam/
A lily amongst thorns/
A ray of light shining in a world of storms/
You're beyond beautiful/
But not in the artificial, conditional way of the media/
Modesty covers you like a veil/
You don't wear fine jewelry/
Cause you're a gem/
Why would a diamond put on a ruby?/

(Chorus)

Sometimes I wonder/
If I'm supposed to be for you, and you for me/
Then why do I waste my time/
Trying to hook up with a girl that's not mine/
Following the flesh, just because she looks fine/
Acting like the swine that I once was/
Now I've learned to change my ways/
Living forgiven by G-d's grace/
It's a test of faith/
Waiting on an unseen face/
When I don't know if you're waiting for me/
In purity/
Like I want you to be/
I mean, look/
For you I've Kissed Dating Goodbye/
Without even reading the book/
I'm done giving away little pieces of my heart/
To girls who don't deserve any part/

Cause you deserve the whole thing/
And that's the same for me/
So please flee from the pleasures of immorality/
Like a virgin/
Because I am, and the longer/
We're apart/
It makes my heart grow fonder.

(Chorus)
