

Atomic Kitten, Strangers

Oooooooh oooh oooh oooh oooh oooh
Oooooooh oooh oooh oooh oooh oooh oooh
Oooooooh oooh oooh oooh oooh oooh
Oooooooh oooh oooh oooh oooh oooh oooh

Everything you do
Says that you are leaving me
Everything you say
Shows you don't believe in me
How was I supposed to know
This was gonna hurt a soul
You and I are strangers in our home
You and I are strangers in our home

Everything I feel
Proves there's nothing left in me
Everything I hear
Takes away the breath in me
How was I supposed to know
This was gonna hurt a soul
You and I are strangers in our home
You and I are strangers in our home

How was I supposed to know
This was gonna hurt a soul
This was gonna hurt a soul
You and I are strangers in our home
You and I are strangers in our home
You and I are strangers in our home
You and I are strangers in our home
