

Atozzio, I Quit

Ohw Ohww

What should I take from this

Always an arguement

What should I make of this

We don't belong together

Even if we are meant to be

Then why this keep happening

The fights per week [?] & no sleep

This don't make no sense to me

We started out so strong

We promised we would last forever

Now I'm weak & I can't move on

And no signs of things are getting better

We keep going back & forth

And now this love's on life support

And I can't go through this no more

So I just wanna put in my two weeks notice

I quit

I quit

I quit

I quit

I quit

Put in my two weeks notice

I tried all that I could

Did everything in the book

But nothing seems to work (out with us)

It's kinda hard giving up

When I invested so much

But enough is enough (yeahh)

We started out so strong

With the promise we would last forever

Now I'm weak & I can't move on

And no signs of things are getting better

We keep going back & forth

And Now this love's on life support

And I can't go through this no more

So I just wanna put in my two weeks notice

I put in all the time

But it never payed off

So I don't wanna listen

And I sure don't wanna talk

I've had it up to here

So I'm gonna make it clear right now

I'm giving you my resignation

We keep going back & forth (back & forth)

And Now this love's on life support (woow, I don't think it's gonna make it)

And I can't go through this no more (I can't go through this no more)

Just wanna put in my two weeks notice (yeah yeah yeah)

We keep going back & forth (we keep babyy)

And Now this love's on life support (Ohh oh)

And I can't go through this no more (Oehhh)

So I just wanna put in my two weeks notice

I quit

I quit

I quit

I quit

I quit

Put in my two weeks notice

I quit

I quit
