

Atreyu, Can't Happen Here

Chariots clashed in the dead of night
Subversiveness clouds the clearest of minds
Blink of an eye we're collateralized
Raised up in arms never knowing why

We give what we take when we take nothing
Pull the helmet from your eyes
We're erased and betrayed by mistakes

[Chorus]
Does your God know my God?
This is how the world will end

And it begs the question
When bullets cloud the sky
Taking away the pain of Thinking for ourselves
Demons beat down
They break down our doors
And it begs the question
"Could This Scene Be Real?"
Stealing away our children
Taking away our dreams!

We give what we take when we take nothing
Pull the helmet from your eyes
We're erased and betrayed by mistakes

[Chorus x2]
Does your God know my God?
This is how the world will end

We give what we take when we take nothing
Pull the helmet from your eyes
We're erased and betrayed by mistakes

[Chorus x4]
Does your God know my God?
This is how the world will end
