

Atreyu, No One Cares

All walled up
I can taste the winter
I would shut up if
I thought that it mattered
That's what it feels like
When your stitched into this skin
I feel stuck
And no one thinks something's missing
Something's missing...

[Chorus]
No one cares
No one listens
Screaming words
That you fake hearing
No one cares
No one listens anymore...

My eyes burn
As I bury how I'm feeling
Close my eyes
It's my life that I've been stealing
If it's all right why do I feel
A sense of longing?
I had it all!
And yet I thought that something's missing
Something's missing...

[Chorus 2x]
No one cares
No one listens
Screaming words
That you fake hearing
No one cares
No one listens anymore...

So paranoid
I've been hiding from the sun
I'm tired of being afraid of everything
And everyone...
I'm so tired!

[Chorus x3]
No one cares
No one listens
Screaming words
That you fake hearing
No one cares
No one listens anymore...
