

Attak, Big Brother

Take tomorrow as another day
You can't escape there is no way
Run for cover from their lies
There is no hope when our country dies
Can't you see the power they've got
What's for you there ain't a lot
Nobody cares the way you live
You can't have what they won't give
You're not happy with their laws
You're not fighting for their cause
You're hiding out in some secret place
You can't win you will lose the race
The clock on the wall say's quarter to
The thought police have come for you
Take you away too a prison cell
Lock you up in a place called hell
