

Attak, Young And Proud

Kids on the street so young and so proud.
Kids on the street their voices are loud.
Kids on the street got nowhere to go,
where the people on the streets are telling them no.
Kids on the street are writing history.
Kids on the street got power and glory.
Kids on the street have seen the light
cause people on the street have no future in sight.
[Chorus:]
Kids on the street.....
