

Au Revoir Simone, Where You Go

I see you out sometimes by coincidence
Been reading about you, I know where you've been
You don't know how much I liked you and I think of you
So much to tell you, to fill you in
Where you go is where I want to be
Wherever you go is where I want to be
I wonder if it's right to call you a friend
I remember your eyes, they made me way too late
Now if I'm standing at a party waiting for the train
I know you're out there, can't wait till we meet again
Where you go is where I want to be
Wherever you go is where I want to be
Where you go is where I want to be
Wherever you go is where I want you to lead me, to lead me
So much to tell you, I have to find you
It's time I see you, I wish we were alone
And it was late at night, I met you at a party
It was a crowded room, I couldn't hear you talking
You tried to hold my hand and then you left without me
But don't you know that where you go is where I want to be
