Au Revoir Simone, Where You Go

I see you out sometimes by coincidence Been reading about you, I know where youve been You don't know how much I liked you and I think of you So much to tell you, to fill you in Where you go is where I want to be Wherever you go is where I want to be I wonder if it's right to call you a friend I remember your eyes, they made me way too late Now if I'm standing at a party waiting for the train I know you're out there, can't wait till we meet again Where you go is where I want to be Wherever you go is where I want to be Where you go is where I want to be Wherever you go is where I want you to lead me, to lead me So much to tell you, I have to find you It's time I see you, I wish we were alone And it was late at night, I met you at a party It was a crowded room, I couldnt hear you talking You tried to hold my hand and then you left without me But don't you know that where you go is where I want to be
