

Audio Adrenaline, I'm Not The King

The king of rock some say he lives
The lizard king is surely dead
The king of France lost his head
The King of Kings bled

I'm not the king I just sing
I'm just a fraction of a thing
I am not anything, without the King of Kings

If I were King I'd be unwise
For my brains are not King size
A King's someone to trust
And love
Like Jesus whom I sing of

I'm not the king I just sing
I'm just a fraction of a thing
I am not anything, without the King of Kings
