

Audio Adrenaline, Strong

I will follow, wherever You lead me, wherever you are underneath this star is where I want to be
And I will lay down, this old life of mine, I'll leave behind all the things of this world just to follow you
And I'll be strong, and courageous, live my life for you my only king,
'cause you're my God, through all the ages,
here am I, I am Yours, send me...

When I fall down, and I'm broken
When I stumble on the rocks and lose my way I will cling to You reach down oh Lord when I'm weak, You come to me,
You give me strength
And I'll be strong, and courageous, live my life for you my only king,
'cause you're my God, through all the ages,
here am I, I am Yours, send me...

And I will follow, wherever You lead me, wherever you are underneath these stars is where I wanna be
And I'll be strong, and courageous, live my life for you my only king,
'cause you're my God, through all the ages,
here am I, I am Yours, send me...
