so i say goodnight to you

when its all been said and you know its no longer left in me and theres nothin i can do but youre the only thing that i can see evolving into everything i need

youre the only thing that matters now oh how i seem to go in everyway

when i go home again
oh baby just please forgive me
And i wont be comin back again so baby just please forgive me
oh baby just please forgive me now
