

Audiovent, Looking Down

Yeah
My shadow stretches far and free
Yeah
It's telling me what I could be
Could be

Cause I'm tired
Of looking up
All the time

We'll stand on top of the world
Looking down
We'll stand on top of the world
Looking down

Yeah
We'll set ourselves apart in time
Yeah
And then we'll leave it all behind
I'll rise

Cause I'm tired
Of looking out
For the line

We'll stand on top of the world
Looking down
We'll stand on top of the world
Looking down

We'll stand on top of the world

Yeah
Is anybody here like me?
Yeah
Can you face the sound
And decide?

We'll stand on top of the world
Looking down
We'll stand on top of the world
Looking down
We'll stand on top of the world
Looking down
To rise above on our own
Looking down
