

Audrey, Bleak

Do you know what it is
And how you line them all
With the layers of a lipstick
We need stacks of bad acts

Oh, I like the way you wear your bonds
It is so charming
Oh, I like the way your skin fits so well

I see your fears
They're walking through me
I'm keeping you
Painfully daily work
You pay for all you've done wrong
Painfully daily work
You pay for all you've done wrong

I call you fake
I call you fake

We make the day start
We bind the ties
We make the day start
We bind the ties
We make the day start
We bind the ties
We make the day start
We bind the ties
We make the day start
We bind the ties
We make the day start
We bind the ties

You didn't hide anymore
The animals are not the same and evil
You didn't hide anymore
The animals are not the same and evil

I call you fake
It's silly too late for apologies
