

Audrey, Leaving/Letting Go

Hey, bachelor number one
Oh, let your heartstrings come undone
I want you back
I wanna give it a shot
Skin against skin
Well now is all we've got

But you say run
For the sake of your soul
You better run run
For here is nothing to lean on

Run run

Oh, is everything lost
Bones turning to soil and frost
Oh, is everything lost
Bones turning to snow and frost
