Aunt Jane

friday night and nothin' to do so bored here in the states friday night is a perfect night to go and visit aunt jane i love her, she's got just what i need to cover my insecurities pick up the phone call up a couple of friends to go down to her place offered a drink as soon as we walk in we shove it down our face again and again and again and again

again and again and again saturday now and i feel like shit im in such pain

i owe it all to my mexican friend well thank you aunt jane i hate her, she's such a fucking bitch but later, and ill be back again
