

Austin Sherie, One Solitary Tear

Austin Sherie

Words

One Solitary Tear

Your love was reckless baby,

I fell deep,

Easy to hold but you were hard to keep

You were a heartache waiting to be

We took off flying down a dead end street

I never knew love could hurt so bad,

When you said goodbye with the tip of your hat,

I watched you leavin' cross the welcome mat

And though I know that you ain't comin' back

One solitary tear,

Is all I cry

One solitary tear,

Fallin', Fallin', Fallin' from my eye

I'll get over you, I'll get by

One solitary tear

At a time

Little things remind me that you're gone

The mailman still brings all your catalogs

The radio just keeps on playin' our songs

But I tell myself that I have to be strong

So one solitary tear

Is all I'll cry

One solitary tear,

Fallin', Fallin' fallin' from my eye

I'll get over you

I'll get by

One solitary tear

At a time

I'll get over you

I'll get by

One solitary tear at a time

One solitary tear at a time
