

Authority Zero, Drunken Sailor

What do you do with a drunken sailor early in the morning?

Woah! Ho!

Up she rises!

We've been on the deck tippin' 'em back since morning

Take another down another drop take warning

Take another down and over board we're drowning

Early in the morning

My crew is full of whiskey

You'll find em' at the show

Bottle, maybe ten, and away we go

This ship docks in Mexico

Early in the morning
