

Authority Zero, Some People

As you go!
On your way, throughout it all,
without a questioning of consequence in store
And all the things that you wanted, made for a better way of everything they're using you for That's when you feel like you're dying,
and want to and some place to go
And then you say that you'll and a better way,
like so many times before, as you go!
So many proting, from your misfortune
and a broken intuition brought abuse
Now as they're gloating in your face and stand so prominent
Now asking how you had ever have a chance without a clue!
That's when you feel like you're dying,
and want to and some place to go!
And then you say that you'll and a better way,
like so many times before, as you go!
Look at the faces that you trust and put them up inside your head!
And out of all the faces that you see,
who's gonna be there in the end?
And out of all the times that you have turned,
like so many times before
Who's gonna be the one to turn their back, running out that door!
Some people! Trying on their fake-ass two faces, saying they only want what's best for you
But hidden deep down within all their smiles, was depravity arising soon
That's when you feel like you're dying,
and want to and some place to go!
And then you say that you've found a better way,
than so many times before, as you go!
Look at the faces that you trust and put them up inside your head!
And out of all the faces that you see, who's gonna be there in the end?
And out of all the times that you have turned, like so many times before
Who's gonna be the one to turn their back, running out that door!
How many people want to and the time and want to make your fantasies come true?
How many people want to tell you lies and want to tell you what you're supposed to do?
And when you gonna realize that it's all just in your head?
Think for you, for yourself instead!
Far away, far from home, from the truth and the lies Far away from things that they tell you, well that's where you'll and That's when you feel like you're trying and then you've found some place to go!
And now you say that you've found a better way,
than so many times before, as you go!
Look at the faces that you trust and put them up inside your head!
And out of all the faces that you see,
who's gonna be there for you in the end?
And out of all the times that you had turned, like so many times before
Who's gonna be the one to turn their back? Running out that door!
Out that door!
Out that door!
Out that door!
