

Autonomadic, The Camel

She smiles -- across the room
She smiles -- her eyes are blue
She smiles -- when I walk up
She smiles -- she lights one up

She smiles, her mouth says hello
She smiles, her teeth are yellow

She laughs -- she thinks it's funny
She laughs -- she smokes a Lucky
She laughs -- she's debonair
She laughs -- her smoky hair

She laughs, her face it lights up
She laughs, she coughs a lung up

Her eyes -- they kiss goodnight
Her lips -- are full of life
Her jaw -- is so romantic
Her throat -- is full of cancer

Her eyes are diamond flashes
Her lips they taste like ashes
