

Autopassion, Blue Horse

Surely they are angry cause they're driven mad
All this strange language
Can't you just see how they'll react

Seemly it's clear and deadly sight
Cannot penetrate your eyes
Wanna save it for petit
You're crackers, it's your party
Wanna get yourself a name
Or go back from whence you came
Wanna save the seventh sin
But can't keep it going in

And there will be no one on your side
If you never ask for it
I wasn't gonna spend another dime
Never a shred more of my precious time

But well I guess
You never were so calm
And I can't help
If you will never tell

But surely a resolution can made tonight
If insistence is all you can give us
Is that right?

The kids are always shaking
Cause they cannot ever tell
If they wrong or just mistaking
Punishment for consequence

And can't you understand
How it confuses them
But you're just sitting on your ass
Couldn't care less to hear your stance

And you never be with them again
No, you can never stay with them, my friend
And there will be no one on your side
If you never ask for it

Seemly it's clear and deadly sight
Cannot penetrate your eyes
Wanna save it for petit
You're crackers, it's your party
Wanna get yourself a name
Or go back from whence you came
Wanna save the seventh sin
But can't keep it going in

Well I guess
You never were so calm
And I can't help
If you will never tell

Well I guess
You never were so calm
And I can't help
If you will never tell
