

Autopassion, Great Indoors

You deserve what you want
Cause you've worked hard enough
You've been selling away your days

If you keep hardening
Then you'll get what you get
Add your bid to the noble hall

And in the great indoors you will be home
And in the great indoors you will be home

Tonight, I want you to shut your mouth
And keep your selfish wishes to yourself

You can't have it both ways
You've slaved away for days
Walk out the door
Straight to your car

And you'll stay in your house
Because house is a house
You'll be safe and sound
There inside

And now, I want you to shut your mouth
And keep your selfish wishes to yourself
And now, I want you to shut your mouth
And keep your selfish wishes to yourself
