

Autopassion, Just A Touch

Just at the sight of her, if I may
All I want is a little taste
What harm can it do anyway?
No, don't happen everyday

I try and try, try to escape
Oh my desire, is it my fate?
To push it once and pull away
But I'm not unused to this game

Just this once
Cause I've been patient for so long
Just a touch
But could that ever be enough?
Better watch what I say

She says we'll all drown in the lake
Oh yea, we'll pay for all of our mistakes
Oh darling, just who will we pay?
I don't think I know their name

I'll never give a thought to ever taking a loss
You were restless and bothered
Bored of being so cautious
You're restless and bothered
Bored of being so cautious
Never gave a thought to
The rest of the game

Just this once
Cause I've been patient for so long
Just a touch
But could that ever be enough?
Better watch what I say

Oh wipe that smile off of your face
Oh don't you know that it's a shame
Can't see the error of our ways
Till we feel a little pain

She says we'll all drown in the lake
Oh yea, we'll pay for all of our mistakes
Oh yea, and just who will we pay?
Oh, don't think I know their name
Don't know their name
