

Autopassion, Whatever

She said I don't wanna be another no more
but I don't really know how to live
If it takes months, then I think I'd rather not try
It takes so long to die

And sure we've had our time together
But it won't be long until we are severed
And I was waiting and you were wasting my time

But you're on my mind all the time
And I don't know when I'll see you
Pray to the lord that it'll be soon

Woke up this morning
And looked to your side of the bed
To see maybe if you had been there
And as it goes, had to leave it all to good dreams
And still only it seems

And sure we've had our time together
But it won't be long until we are severed
And I was waiting and you were wasting my time

But you're on my mind all the time
And I don't know when I'll see you
Pray to the lord that it'll be soon

You're on my mind all the time
It only goes away
Once were mine all mine

She said I don't wanna be another no more
but I don't really know how to live
If it takes months, then I think I'd rather not try
It takes so long to die

And sure we've had our time together
But it won't be long until we are severed
And I was waiting and you were wasting my time

But you're on my mind all the time
And I don't know when I'll see you
Pray to the lord that it'll be soon

You're on my mind all the time
It only goes away
Once were mine all mine