

Avantasia, Breaking Away

(Lugaid:)

Don't wait my friend. We better don't think twice.
Time to fell the prison guard you gotta realize:
No turning back again. Therefore it's all too late
New horizons wait

I know the time has come
to leave your past behind.
And now the time has come to stop them controlling your mind.

(Gabriel:)

Breaking away!
All we can do now is break away.
Otherwise she will be dying
while both of us are lying here in chains

Breaking away!
All we can do now is break away.
Oh - otherwise she will be dying
while both of us are lying caught in chains

Breaking away!

Always been a novice in quest for paradise.
Hope they will forgive me for I apostatize.
I can't be no hypocrite, can't wear a masquerade
New horizons wait...

(Lugaid & Gabriel:)

And now the time has come to go another way.
To learn for life and to grow ripe
And prevent the decay...

(Gabriel:)

Breaking away!
All we can do now is break away.
Oh - Otherwise she will be dying
while both of us are lying here in chains

Breaking away!
All we can do now is break away.
Oh - otherwise she will be dying
while both of us are lying here, caught in chains

Hougghh! Ahhh...

(Solo: Henjo)

(Gabriel:)

Breaking away!
It's so hard to lay down where I've been.
But I must go even if my way leads to Hades...

Breaking away!
All we can do now is break away.
Otherwise she will be dying
while both of us are lying here in chains

Breaking away!
All we can do now is break away.
Oh - otherwise she will be dying
while both of us are lying caught in chains

Hough!
