

Avengers, Open Your Eyes

At first I thought you were dead
But not I see you're one of the rest
They've drugged you with music and TV sedation
You're one of the blank generation.

(Chorus)

Open your eyes. Open your eyes.
You don't see what's going on.
Open your eyes. Open your eyes.
You watch TV to find out what's right and wrong.
Open your eyes to what you respected.
Open your eyes and you can reject it.

I wanna upset you, wanna make you think
But you eat all this shit.

Makes your breath stink.

Gonna get a job & join the fkin union.
That way you know nothing's gonna happen.

(Chorus)

Like lemmings, you run toward destruction.
You can't stop the sea of corruption.

Oh, I see you've been blind.

You better make up your mind now.

(Chorus)

Open your eyes. Open your eyes.
